CAVERSWALL

Caverswall (St Peter) was a vicarage in the presentation of George Parker of "Park Hall", Weston Coyney in Caverswall, Staffs Esquire c1592-1675. He had presented John Burtinshaw ?1638-1671 who was in office as vicar here in Jan 1661.2. Caverswall consisted of four townships - Caverswall, Hulme, Meir and Weston Coyney - which all lay in Caverswall constablewick which also included the parish of Dilhorne.

Caverswall parish (in Caverswall constablewick) lies about 3½ miles W by S of Cheadle and 7 miles E by S of Newcastle-under-Lyme. It extends to about 5,380 acres and consisted of four townships - Caverswall, Hulme, Meir and Weston Coyney. Caverswall constablewick consisted of two parishes - Caverswall and Dilhorne

Parish History

(1851) CAVERSWALL, vulgarly called Careswell, is a pleasant, but irregularly built village, near the source of the river Blythe, 3½ miles W by S of Cheadle, and 7 miles E by S of Newcastle-under-Lyme; being only about a mile N of Blythe Bridge Station on the North Staffordshire Railway. Its parish is divided into the two townships of Caverswall and Weston-Coyney with Hulme, which support their poor conjointly, and contain 1,505 inhabitants, and about 5,380 acres of land, of which 1,570 acres and 567 souls are in Caverswall, and 3,810 acres and 938 souls in Weston-Coyney and Hulme. [WHITE]

Supposed by some, but wrongly (W. Salt, Hist. Coll., iv. 25), to be the moiety of Stoke Church mentioned in Domesday as in the gift of the Lord of Caverswall. Appropriated before 1291 to S. Thomas' Priory, Stafford.

The chapelry of MEIR was formed 1894 (to ease) part (-----) of CAVERSWALL. A conventional district was formed ?1919 and a parish in 1926.

George Reeve (?compliant minister of Caverswall) e1615-1665
Reeve, born perhaps about 1615 probably in Staffordshire, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He could have been ordained a deacon about 1640. On 3 Oct 1649 he was in office as ?compliant minister of Caverswall vicarage when the Committee for plundered ministers granted him an augmentation of £12 to his annual salary of £20. He probably resigned here before 8 Aug 1655 when he was appointed ?compliant minister of Donington, Salop where he compounded on 24 Mar 1656.7. On 28 Sep 1660 he was presented at Bridgnorth Assizes "for refusing to read common prayer, but a surety promising on his behalf that he would read the service, no case was found against him". About Sep 1660 he was (to be) displaced in office by the former rector John Chapman c1581-1660. Calamy writes in 1713 "He preached afterwards for some time at Talk-Chappel". [There is no evidence that he conformed in 1662 or later held any office.] On 16 Nov 1665 when he wrote his will Reeve was living at Ewtree in Wolstanton where he probably died, aged about 50, in Dec 1665 but was buried at Audley on 1 Jan 1665.6. His will made on 16 Nov 1665 was proved under Lichfield on 15 Nov 1666. In his will Reeve requests to be buried "in the parish church of Audley neere to my mother" and mentions many Staffordshire kinsmen. His personalty is said to have included “plate and a library worth £30”. Reeve married perhaps about 1645 to Ann (no known children). [NOTE: Two men of his name matriculated at Cambridge in 1640 and 1646 but are not known to have had Staffordshire connections].

(2013) Poole’s successor was George Reeve, the ejected minister of Donnington (Salop.), who must have conformed to the restored Church of England and who may have provided the chapel at Talke with its 1663 silver sweetmeat dish, perhaps intended for use as a bread plate or for collecting alms. Evidently a man of some private means as his belongings at death in 1665 included plate and a library worth £30. [VCH XI (2013) p85 Quoting LRO, B/C/11 and SRO, D 3483/1/1]

William Bott (rector of Fenny Bentley, Derbys) c1617-1701 RA--

Bott, born about 1617, was a son of son of Richard Bott of Withington, Staffs. He studied at Oxford where on 10 Apr 1635 he was a commoner at Hart Hall and matriculated. He graduated B.A. on 13 Jul 1639. He was (presumably) ordained deacon and on 25 Sep 1642 ordained priest by Lichfield. On 10 Apr 1642 he was inducted as rector of Fenny Bentley, Derbys. From 5 Feb 1643.4 he continued here as compliant minister but, then serving in the royal army, was sequestered by the County Committee. In 1650 he was reported to be minister of Tissington, Derbys but “a man disaffected”. By An act for the confirming and restoring of ministers (13 Sep 1660) he was apparently restored as rector of Fenny Bentley and subscribed to the Act of uniformity on 12 Aug 1662. One record states, likely in error, that he left office as vicar of Caverswall on or before 1 Feb ?1661.2. Still in office at Fenny Bentley he died, aged about 54, and was buried there on 27 Nov 1701. His will made on 5 Jun 1700 was proved under Lichfield on 24 Apr 1702. An inventory included “Item In the Studdy Bookes £1”. Bott married first about 1643 to Elizabeth Buxton (d 1652) dau of Edward Buxton gentleman by whom he had five daughters. He married second (? on 23 Apr 1661) to Elizabeth Griffin (d 1703) dau of Bartholomew Griffin (rector of Fenny Bentley, Derbys) ...-1638 (no known children). It is recorded that Bott “spent at least £50 on the repairing and adorning of this church [Fenny Bentley], according to a vow made by him when in adversity”.

(Fenny Bentley) It appears from voluminous Latin entries, that William Bott was inducted to this rectory on April 10th, 1642, but that owing to the Commonwealth, "rebellions factissima," he was dispossessed of the living until the Restoration. He married for his second wife, Elizabeth, the daughter of Bartholomew Griffin, his predecessor in the rectory. He further records that he spent at least £50 on the repairing and adorning of this church, according to a vow made by him when in adversity. John Burtinshaw (vicar of Caverswall) ?1638-1671 21

Burtinshaw, born about 1638, was probably son of Thomas Burtinshaw of Manchester, Lancs. He is probably the man of this name who studied at Cambridge and was on 5 Mar 1656.7 admitted as a sizar at Emmanuel College and matriculated but is not known to have graduated. About Jan 1661.2 he was ordained deacon and priest by Lichfield and after presentation by George Parker of "Park Hall", Weston Coyney in Caverswall esquire c1592-1675 was instituted vicar of Caverswall. He subscribed to The act of uniformity on 28 Jul 1662. On 22 Oct 1663 he was licensed as a preacher by Lichfield. In 1665 he certified the hearth tax for Caverswall constablewick and was assessed on one hearth at Forsbrook in Dilhorne. Still in office he died, aged about 33, and was buried here on 18 Mar 1670.1. His will made on 26 Jan 1670.1 was proved under Lichfield on 8 Apr 1671. His personalty was valued at £108/19/0 and included " his library of bookes and Presse wherein hys bookes are". Burtinshaw married first about 1662 to Mary ?Hulme (d 1664) by whom he had 1 son. He married second about 1666 Joyce ?Wood (d 1713) by whom he probably had 3 daughters.

James Corbet (lay reader of Chapel Chorlton, Staffs) ?1647-1728
Corbet was born (perhaps) about 1647 (and probably christened 13 Feb 1647.8 as son of William Corbett of Eccleshall ?yeoman). On 14 Oct 1663 - apparently aged about 16 - he was appointed lay reader of Chapel Chorlton by the Dean and Chapter of Lichfield (in the absence of a parochial curate) and on 1 Jan 1663.4 master of Eccleshall Parish School. He probably resigned at Chapel Chorlton in Dec 1668 when as a literate he was ordained deacon by Lichfield and licensed as a preacher for Stoke-upon-Trent. Here he served until 1671 when (presumably having been ordained priest) he was on 25 Sep after probable presentation by George Parker of "Park Hall", Weston Coyney in Caverswall, Staffs Esquire c1592-1675 appointed vicar of Caverswall. Here he may have resigned about 1712 by when he was living at Handford in Trentham. Then not in office he died, aged about 81, and was buried on 25 Aug 1728 at Caverswall. His will made on 15 May 1728 was proved at Lichfield on 30 Aug 1728. Corbet married 28 Jul 1695 at Keele to Mary Corbet (d 1713) widow of Thomas Brerehurst of Handford in Trentham yeoman but may not have had any children.

Robert Marchenton (compliant minister of Maer) e1614-1654
Marchenton, born perhaps about 1614, is of unknown parentage. He was probably only educated to literate grade. He was presumably ordained deacon by 18 Mar 1637.8 when he was in office as stipendiary curate of Caverswall where he was still in office on 16 Jan 1641.2. On 16 Apr 1643 he was in office as stipendiary curate-in-charge at Ashley (on behalf of the rector John Lightfoot D.D. 1602-1675 QV who probably resigned before Feb 1643.4). By 26 Mar 1643.4 Marchenton was in office as compliant minister of Maer where he succeded his father-in-law Randulph Hodgkin c1596-1642 QV. On 9 Mar 1650.1 the Committee for plundered ministers formally "settled" him at Maer and granted him an augmentation of £50 to his annual salary of no more than £20. Still in office he died, aged about 40, and was buried here on 23 Mar 1653.4. Marchenton married 8 Jan 1643.4 at Maer to Mary Hodgkin c1621-1646 dau of Randulph Hodgkin (no known children)
